Attendance: John Lyscars, Todd Lizotte (no public in attendance)

2. Motion made by Todd Lizotte to make John Lyscars chairman
Seconded by John Lyscars
Vote unanimous 2:0

Sub-committee chair John Lyscars read the charge (See attached)

3. Discussion on charge and purpose:

Purpose: Create a format for the April 21st forum to ascertain information from the public about the Pinkerton Academy warrant article vote.

4. Open Idea Discussion

- Option #1: schedule a meeting where there is only public input to offer citizens of the town the opportunity to provide input to the board in terms of the resulting election. The purpose being to allow citizens a hearing to share concerns, offer ideas and to share reasons for a no or yes vote if they are so inclined.
- Option #2: schedule a meeting where the public can take two tickets, one red (top choice for voting no on the Pinkerton contract) and one blue (second choice for voting no on the Pinkerton contract) the same red and blue would also be provided for yes on Pinkerton.

Each ticket would be place blindly into various boxes with categories:

- Why No:
 - o Too far
 - o Cost too much
 - o School too big
 - o History with Manchester
 - o Contract to restrictive

- Start time
- Kids in Manchester
- Manchester offer a quality education

- Why Yes:

- Stability
- Educational opportunities
- Not Manchester
- Transportation
- CTE program

5. Debate

Todd Lizotte and John Lyscars debated the merits of both ideas and decided through consensus to bring both back to the board for discussion.

Motion to adjourn by Todd Lizotte, Seconded by John Lyscars (Vote unanimous 2:0)
