2023 Staff Appreciation Weeks

May 1-12 marked Hooksett Schools' Staff Appreciation weeks, with Cawley Middle School recognized the first week and Underhill and Memorial schools recognized the second week. The Hooksett School Board Staff Appreciation Committee (pictured left to right: Alexis Quinlan, Jillian Godbout, and Amy Tremblay) designed and prepared bookmarks, seed packets, and thank you cards for all staff. I want to acknowledge Ms. Godbout for her work assembling all the gifts over April vacation week. Staff appreciation is also recognized by the Hooksett PTA, who offers many volunteer-run activities with the support of several community businesses.

The employees of the Hooksett School District thoughtfully support our district's mission. Our students, and their families, are fortunate to have their support throughout the school year. Every role requires responding to the unique challenges of each day, and student lives are better because of their work. Thank you, staff!

2023 Staff Retirements

We are saddened to lose some of our valuable staff members at the end of this year, but happy they are beginning new adventures.
